Building a dream is not easy, but that was the commission. Yes, as usual, but that time it was like never before. We had to renovate an old building in order to create a space entirely devoted to chocolate. That was the sweet dream of Jordi, the chocolate maker. We had to do it with emotion, with metaphors, with a sense of humour... We had to be at the level of Easter cakes and chickens! We enter a dream, crossing the bridge, we leave all the troubles behind and we get ready to believe in...
